ABOUT ME

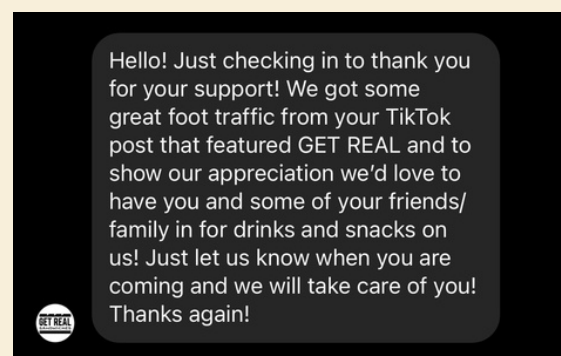

Hi! I'm Cahner. I grew up in Omaha, moved away for eight years, then moved back in July 2021. I quickly discovered that Omaha felt like a totally different city than what I remembered. I decided to document all the new places I was going, and so Omaha Places was born.

I have been a social media manager for four years, so I know the power that a single Instagram post or TikTok video can have. I'm excited to bring some of that power to help promote businesses and events in Omaha.

"Omaha Places social media accounts have helped us out more than we could expect. After we were posted on the page, we have groups coming in saying how they found us on TikTok to this day. We expected a little exposure but what we got was great return on investment right away! Highly recommend!"
